

"The cost of insurance is higher for people who participate in high risk activities or have impaired health conditions. Substandard 'table ratings' are used to express the additional risk taken by the company. Table ratings are designated as Tables A-P (or 1-16), with each table corresponding to an additional percentage increase over the unrated risk class cost of insurance rates."